Grace & Truth

Grace Lutheran Church, Fremont, OH

JULY 2012

Summer is a time when we think of refreshment and relaxation. It is a time to reconnect with family and friends. These are good things!

Did you know God planned that from the beginning of creation? We try and jam everything into a ten week summer. Yet God made us to do it once a week. It is called “Sabbath.” For the most part we think of Sabbath as an old fashioned term. It brings up memories of things you could not do because it was Sunday but Sabbath is a weekly day of rest and re-connection.

God fashioned the Sabbath for us, his beloved creation, so that we might rest and be re-connected to the relationships in our lives. Of course the most important relationship we have, the model for all our relationships, is our relationship with the God who formed us, loves us, and restores us through His Son, Jesus Christ. God tells us not to wait for the summer to jam everything into a few weeks but to take time EACH week to be in communication with Him and through Him with each other.

May your summer be a blessed time for you. May you find rest and peace. And may you find yourself moving into a Sabbath way of thinking where EACH week you pay deliberate attention to your relationship with God and let His love inform all the rest of the relationships of your lives.

Yours in Christ,
Pastor Keith

A MESSAGE FROM THE BISHOP

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

How would you answer the question, “When all is said and done, what do you hope and pray will have been accomplished through your life?” How would you answer the question, “When the day is done, what do you hope and pray God will accomplish through the congregation of which you are a part?” Such questions are clarifying. They push us to ask about what finally is of greatest importance.

Some months ago someone asked me, “Bishop, what do you want for our life together in this synod?” That was a clarifying moment for me. I found myself saying, “When people look at us individually, or when they look at our congregations, or when they look at the agencies and ministries that relate to Northwestern Ohio Synod, or when they look at us as a synod, I hope and pray that they will see something of what God is doing in Christ Jesus through us, among us, and within us.” That’s it!

According to St. Mark, Jesus begins his ministry with these words: “Now after John was arrested, Jesus came to Galilee, proclaiming the good news of God, “ “The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near; repent and believe in the good news.” “ Mark 1:14-15. The gospels then unfold the story of how the kingdom (the reign) of God draws near in the person of Jesus, in his words and deed, in his suffering, death, resurrection and ascension. In response to that story, god’s desire is that we do an “about face” (that is, after all, the deepest meaning of repentance) and trust ourselves to the One who is the author of that story. When by the power of the Holy Spirit we do that, those around us will see something of the reign of God unfolding. Similarly, when we see that in others, we see something of what God is up to in Christ Jesus!

Marked with the cross of Christ forever, we who belong to the congregations, ministries and agencies of this synod will be signs of and participants in God’s in-breaking reign in Christ Jesus. Our May Synod Assembly adopted that Vision Statement as a way of pointing us to that which has ultimate importance for us individually, and as congregations, ministries and agencies of this synod.

The big question is not “Are we liked” or “what do people think of us” or “will we survive” or “do we have enough money.” The big questions are: Do people see Christ when they look at us? Are we able to see something of the reign of God in Christ as we look at each other and as our eyes are open to the world around us?

We acknowledge the promise given to us in our baptism when we were “marked with the cross of Christ forever, when we confess our sins and hear the promise of forgiveness, as we wrap ourselves in the Word of God in Christ Jesus, when we participate in the prayer of the church, when we receive and give “the peace of Christ,” and when we are nourished with Christ’s body and blood.

Several days ago, I visited St. Lucas in Toledo. I witnessed a room of men gather for an AA meeting. In another room, items were being gathered and marked for their “Free Store.” In still another space the kitchen was busy in preparation for a daily meal which serves 65-80. In this community of poverty and the manifold stresses of life, there were ample signs of the abundance, generosity, and love that are characteristic of the life of Christ.

A little later in the day, I participated in the dedication of the Labuhn Center at the Lutheran Home Society campus in Oregon. The center was named after Jerry Labuhn and his wife, Ilene, whose lives have been marked by the ability to see Christ in those most vulnerable. And, in their care, others have seen Christ. Again I saw something of those who are “signs of and participants in God’s in-breaking reign in Christ Jesus.”

How would you answer the question, “When all is said and done, what do you hope and pray will be said about your life, that of your congregation, and that of this synod?” My fervent hope and prayer is that our lives, our congregations, and this synod will be signs of and participants in God’s in-breaking reign in Christ Jesus. That finally is a matter of ultimate importance. Really, in the end, nothing else matters.

Bishop Marcus C. Lohrmann

Thank You's

The family of Bruce M. Gahn would like to thank Maureen Pump for the many prayers offered during Bruce's illness and for the wonderful message that she gave at his funeral service. It was a meaningful and touching sermon for someone she didn't know well. Thanks, also, to the women of the church for the enormous luncheon that was provided for the family and friends after the service, to Peggy Dorr for the organ music, to Cindy Waggoner for delivering chicken soup, and to all those who remembered us in any way with cards and prayers during the months of Bruce's illness.

*Judy Gangwer
and the family of Bruce M. Gahn*

We want to thank everyone for the prayers, concerns and cards during Larry's recent hospitalization and surgery. We appreciate all the love, support and visits from Pastor Keith, Pastor Jim, Maureen and friends. Thanks for the delicious chicken soup and the prayer shawl that Cindy Waggoner delivered to us. We have been so blessed, thanks be to God.

*Friends in Christ,
Larry and Ann Richardson*

We would like to thank Maureen for the prayers and concern for Dick and I during his hospitalization. As we progressed to Countryside for rehab, we had the opportunity to share with other residents the sacrament of Communion. Thank you Pastor Jim. Thanks to all for the prayers and best wishes for Dick's recovery. How great is our Lord!

*God Bless,
Dick and Sandy Houghtaling*

I wish to express my appreciation to my church family for all their prayers, cards and encouraging words during my surgery and rehab. Thanks to Maureen and Pastor Avers for their visits and prayers. I am so blessed.

Nancy Roddy

*Grace Lutheran Church,
Thank you so much for awarding me the Charles L. and Frances L. Fox Foundation Scholarship. It will be very beneficial as I make my way through Eastern Michigan for occupational therapy. The money will be spent well. Once again thank you very much.*

Rachel Laeng

My sincere thanks to Pastor Keith and the congregation for your prayers, cards, and kind words during my recent health problems. Special thanks to Maureen for her visits and prayers, as well as the delivery of the prayer shawl. Also to Esther Chambers for visiting me and bringing along the kind gift of soup.

Many thanks and my the Lord be with you all.

Wayne Lieske

The daughter and son-in-law of Beatrice Wratchford would like to thank all of our Church family for all of their prayers and cards.

A special thanks also to Pastor Keith and Maureen for their phone calls. Also to Bev O'Donnell for the chicken soup and her words of kindness.

*God bless you all,
Kenny and Barb Klohn*

We wish to thank all Grace members who remembered us with thoughts, prayers, and cards during the recent loss of Dick's brother. Your concerns were truly comforting.

Dick and Bev O'Donnell

The clients and volunteers at Share and Care would like to thank you for your kind donation. Our donations have been slow this year and friends like you have enabled us to help many of our neighbors in need.

Share and Care

*Dear Friends from Grace Lutheran Church,
Thank you for your generous donation of Bibles to the Giving Store. More than half of them have been graciously received by our shoppers. Many of our needy neighbors attend our brief service and share their prayer requests very openly. We are all growing in faith and sharing in God's will.*

*Sincerely,
Barbara Hindel
The Giving Store*

Thank You!

Special thanks to Jim Post for planting the flowers around the Grace Lutheran sign which sits in front of the courtyard. These flowers were donated in memory of Goldie Bowlus, by Jim Post and his mother, Helen Post.

Doug Hetrick

Thank you to all who have donated to Lutheran World Relief, your help is truly appreciated. GLCW has received money from Thrivent Financial for Lutherans to help cover the cost of some materials and items for our projects this year for 'Hands-on service activity.

For the month of July we will be collecting for our school kits: notebooks with at least 70 sheets of paper, blunt scissors, ball-point pens (no gel ink), and 2 1/2 inch long erasers. Any help you can give will be appreciated. There are containers located at all the entrances to the church or you may also take your donations to the church office.

Hospice of Memorial Hospital is looking for volunteers to join our team. Volunteers visit patients and their families, provide companionship, deliver medicine and supplies to patients, provide support through art, music and reading, as well as helping with office work. For more information contact Esther Chambers, 419-334-8622; Jim Scranton, 419-334-3785; Becky Prasuhn, 419-332-0204; Eve Foreman, 419-333-7829; or Al Stokes, 419-332-2110.

WOMEN OF GRACE are invited to participate in a one-day retreat hosted by the members of Joy Circle at the home of Becky Seibert on Tuesday, July 17, beginning at 9 a.m. There will be a morning session (10 a.m.) and an afternoon session (1 p.m.) presented using the Summer Bible Study in the Gather Magazine.

Materials will be provided as well as lunch at no cost to you. You need only to bring your Bible. Feel free to come for the day or join in whatever session fits your time schedule. Please RSVP to your Circle leader or to Becky at 419-665-2201.
